LOWES FOODS PRESENTS...

A lot of people work at a supermarket. Think of a person you might meet at the store. Write in a possible job title.

JOB TITLE

Choose One Department:

- | | |
|---------|--------------|
| Seafood | Service desk |
| Bakery | Dairy |
| Produce | Checkout |

Now write down the following observations about that person.

1. Two actions this person performs while on the job.

2. Two things you learn in school that would help you, if you had this job.

3. Two questions this person might answer for a customer.

Bagel Bargain

Suppose you work in the bakery department. Bagels cost 40¢ each, but this week, if a customer buys two bagels, she gets one free! Answer these questions:

1. If I buy six bagels, how many will I get free? _____
2. If I want to have a total of one dozen bagels, how much will I have to spend? _____

The store on the other side of town is selling 40¢ bagels for a 25% discount...

3. Which offer is better, if I want to buy one bagel? _____
4. How about six bagels? _____

Answers: 3 bagels; $3.20;
the other store; your store
